Larry Kane: Voice of Reason

Date: Sunday, June 29, 2008 at 9:30 PMHost: Larry Kane

TOPIC: WORKPLACE WOES-We've all suffered through it..that co-worker you just can't stand, the office mate who doesn't carry his weight, talks on the phone all day, takes credit for your work or spreads nasty gossip like poison around the workplace. What do you do to mitigate the damage to your sanity? Is it a matter of changing their behavior or changing your response to it?

What about someone with a short fuse, someone who talks about their personal/sex life, someone you're supposed to supervise who needs constant supervision? The list of potential workplace dilemmas is virtually endless.

Are their tricks to getting what you want from certain personalities/work types?

Or do you suck it up and deal with it or move on and find another job?

Do you report them to your superiors? Or do you try to handle it one on one? Larry Kane looks at these and many other workplace woes with motivational speaker, time management and workplace relationship expert Gail Kasper and Terrence Gargiulo, author of the just released book, IN THE LAND OF DIFFICULT PEOPLE: 24 Timeless Tales Reveal How to Tame the Beasts at Work. The book looks at the types of behavior that can wreak havoc on an organization and offers tips and tactics for dealing with domineering supervisors, destructive colleagues, and overly independent workers. The book looks at 8 common types of personalities that can make work a nightmare.

Gail Kasper is an life strategist, motivational speaker and time management expert who has worked with multi-million dollars companies, CEOs, Ivy League Institutions, sports teams and athletes, coaching them on everything from conflict resolution to improved communication to tips on hiring the right people to start with.
